PIMPLES COVERED BABY'S HEAD

Became One Scale Which Was Awful to Look At, Burning and Itching All the Time, Began on Body.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"Baby was five days old when I first noticed that her head was covered with red pimples. The ball of her head became one scale which was awful to look at. She cried and lay awake trying to get at it. It was burning and itching so all the time. After a while it began to break out on her body. My baby was an awful looking sight."

"Baby was a sufferer for six weeks before I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and her body and head were disfigured with scales. In a few days my baby was well all over." (Signed) Mrs. R. E. Bigelow, R. F. D. No. 2, Shelburne Harbor, Vt., July 1, 1915.

A Phrase That Harks Back Beyond Eve

"Mother, for the Lord's sake, don't listen to grandmother! She's one of the type that keeps the world back."

"She doesn't like change, that's all," Mrs. Payton explained.

"Yes; she doesn't like change," Frederick agreed. "If nature had listened to grandmother we'd all be protoplasm still. Probably the grandmother of the first worm that sprouted legs kicked. No, she couldn't kick," Frederick said, chuckling, "because she didn't have the legs she despised; she just said, 'It isn't done.'" Margaret Deland in Woman's Home Companion.

BERLIN ADDS 2 SHIPS TO LOST

Destruction of Lutzow and the Rostock Withheld for Military Reasons

SHIPS SANK RACING FOR HOME HARBOR

Lutzow a Battle Cruiser of 26,000 Tons—Kaiser Now Admits Loss of 11 Vessels

London, June 9.—A German official statement received in Amsterdam yesterday admits the sinking of the large battle cruiser Lutzow and the small cruiser Rostock in the Skagerrack naval engagement, according to dispatches received here yesterday noon. The boats sank on their way to harbor after the battle. Earlier mention of their losses was not made, say the dispatches, because of "military considerations."

The admission of the loss of the Lutzow and Rostock brings the total admitted German loss to 12 ships, 64,993 tons. Before the admission it stood at 32,315 tons as against admitted British losses of about 114,000 tons.

The Lutzow was a battle cruiser of the Darfing type, of 28,000 tons displacement, length 718 feet and speed 30 knots. Her armament was eight 12-inch guns and 12 5.9-inch guns.

The Rostock was a small cruiser of the type of the famous Karlsruhe. Her displacement was 4822 tons, length 456 feet and speed 27 knots. Her chief armament was 12 4.7-inch guns. She carried 373 officers and men.

BASEBALL BRIEFS.

Walker of the Red Sox seemed over anxious in Tuesday's game, when, with two strikes against him, he made a swipe at one so far out that a telegraph pole wouldn't touch it. A safe hit might have started a rally that would have won the game, with three on and two out at the time.

With Larry Gardner, Jack Barry and Harry Hooper, three of the regulars, out of the lineup, the Red Sox seem to be taking a slump. There is no team that can take the place of a regular lineup when they work as harmoniously as the Red Sox.

Hank Gowdy took his first rest of the season when he laid off and Traggesser did the receiving for the Braves. Traggesser did some fine work, taking everything on the receiving end and rapping out a clean single.

Johnny Evers is taking a rest to see if he can't overcome a batting slump and is also nursing along a sore arm that has been bothering him of late.

The three old reliables that are in their batting stride are Cobb, Speaker and Jackson, but there is one missing among the top notchers that always has been up among the leaders and this is Eddie Collins, who is only hitting at .250. This is the first time at this season that Collins has not been up among the 300 hitters since he commenced his career on the big league ballfield; but Eddie is apt to break loose any day and be up with the rest of his class. It was only last week that his clubmate, Joe Jackson, broke forth with a dash and reached the .340 mark.

John Carney, the old professional ball player, who is coaching the Exeter team and who has just won his fourth game from Andover in as many years, will return to Manchester, N. H., and rest until next fall, when he will return to Exeter and give the Exonians their fall training on the ballfield.

Almost all star ball players slip for a year or so and then come back with a sport that gives them the name of a

You appreciate the importance of correct style in your clothes; but you probably couldn't say just what correct style is.

Style means so many things that very few men can describe it; two suits, for example, might differ very decidedly in details, and yet both be correct in style.

Style isn't any one thing; it's a general "air"; but, whatever it is, you want it.

Gladys M. Huntington made the class presentation to the seminary, which takes the form of shrubbery for grounds. Upon behalf of the trustees it was accepted by Dr. William Shaw.

The final exercises were made up as follows: The organ solo was played by Miss Gladys Gale of Barre. Prayer was offered by Rev. Goodwill F. Arms of Chiles. Gerald Clarke, president of the class, gave the salutatory, in which he laid particular emphasis upon the motto, which, in English, is "Through Difficulties to the Heights." Mr. Clarke spoke very well and was followed by Miss Eleanor Sands, who sang.

The speaker of the morning was Rev. A. W. Hewitt, the newly elected trustee of the school and a member of the state board of education. He was followed by Miss Edna Celley, who delivered the valedictory. After the usual words to those gathered, she spoke at length to the undergraduates, handling the oration in a very clever manner. Much praise was given each of the speakers upon their work. Mrs. Edwin Bruce rendered a violin solo, "Canzonetta," by Tchaikowski. This was followed by the presentation of diplomas by Principal Hatch with fitting words.

Bath Only.
A worn, dusty and bedraggled man marched courageously across the lobby to the desk of one of the exceedingly luxurious hostesses. "What are your prices?" he inquired. "Room without a bath, $3.50; with a bath, $4," the clerk rattled off glibly. The dusty and bedraggled one pondered. "Well, please give me," he remarked finally, "a bath without a room. And kindly see that a nice eiderdown pillow is placed in the tub. Also be especially sure that—" at this the clerk looked up. And the house detective closed the incident.
